H. BUCHANAN.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, 11:11 NOV. 14, 1890.

A Solid North.

Think of it; the Democrats have a majority of 24 in the next Congress, counting only the members from the Northern States. Think of it; counting the Northern States alone, the Democrats have an immense majority of the popular vote.

Think of it; Cleveland received one million more white votes than were cast for Harrison; and the election this year shows two million more white men voting the Democratic ticket than the Republican.

Take the negro vote from the Republican vote in the United States, and what a very small minority party it is!

Can't any intelligent man see the doom and end of the Republican party in these facts? The great North is Democratic on the National issues of today; but its Republican on the local issues. The war is twenty-five years in the past, and has imposed hardships, horrors and excruciations enough upon this country. It should be held a crime, North, South, East or West, to further obstruct the happiness and prosperity of this great country by its hates.

Blaine, the Only Hope.

The leading Republican papers are now vociferously quoting Blaine's sayings, "that the McKinley tariff bill was an infamy and outrage, the most shameful measure ever proposed by Congress," and that it would carry the Republican party to perdition," etc., and pointing out these facts to prove that in case there is a choice for the Republicans to nominate for President in 1892.

It appears to be a fact that Blaine did talk in this way, and make these predictions, trying to keep his party from passing the bill, but his party in Congress, with only three dissenting votes, did pass the bill, and after it was passed, Mr. Blaine made speeches in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, trying to get the country to accept it.

Blaine had taken the stump against it or if he had remained silent, he might, with some show, be put forward to lead his party out of the terrible predicament, but he stands before the public as one knowing the bill was an outrage and they gave it his mighty support.

Cleveland beat him before, and he can do it again.

Blaine's organs generally claimed that nothing more would be heard about "McKinley prices" after the election. They asked their readers to believe that the high prices were "a scare" originating with Democrats to discredit "a wise Republican measure." We commend to them the following from the regular press dispatches:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.

Several leading better and able editors of the United States met here yesterday, and entered into an agreement as to the future grading of letters. It was understood that they will also attempt to advance prices, (conditionals are favorable, a few were unfavorable).

After disagreeing that, here is another for their consideration:

CINCINNATI, Ind., Nov. 8.

The Chicago papers of the day held an important meeting this afternoon. All the papers were represented, the object being to consider some action to be taken in view of the increased duties on tin. The meeting was held at the purpose of discussing the possibility of moving the stock yards and plants of the various packing houses. It was decided that an advance could be made of a cent a pound, and some of the advance being deemed necessary to cover the additional cost of the tin under the new tariff schedule. They will please observe the date here, and so soon as even the tremendous cost of last Tuesday against McKinley prices has had to effect in checking them.

GOV. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, is lying seriously ill at Columbus, and his illness has been fatal.

He is threatened with typhoid pneumonia.

The 12 Apostles.

The Democratic members of Congress are unanimous in favor of making 12 demands upon the Republican Senate for legislative reforms, and these demands have been called by the newspapers the 12 Apostles:

- (1) Free silver for men and women.
- (2) Free cotton.
- (3) Free wool.
- (4) Free agricultural implements and edged tools.
- (5) Free bladders.
- (6) Free coal.
- (7) Free tin and tin plate.
- (8) Free silver-bearing lead ore to re-establish our trade with Mexico.
- (9) Free lumber.
- (10) A reduction to the "free zone only" basis on table and kitchen ware.
- (11) Free white lead and paints.
- (12) Free hauled wire and wire rods for fences.

REPUBLICAN SENATOR PADDON.

The "Three Ps" did not do a bad day's work on the day of the election. In Kansas Mr. Ingalls sought a re-election to the Senate, and the people have elected an anti-Ingalls Legislator. But Mr. Plumb, Republican Senator from Kansas, voted against the McKinley bill.

In Nebraska the latest returns indicate the election of a Democratic Governor, and that they have with the Alliance a majority of the Legislature. Mr. Paddock, a Republican Senator from that State, voted against the McKinley bill.

It will take fuller returns to decide who has won in North Dakota, though the indications are that the Republicans will be greatly reduced, majorities, with the exception of the Legislature. Mr. Pettigrew, a Republican Senator from that State, voted against the McKinley bill.

AT THEIR OLD TRICKS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—There are indications that the Republican leaders are trying to hold back returns on the New York Assembly so that in case there is a very close vote a certificate may be given to the Republican candidate instead of the Democrats.

The majority of supervisors in nearly all the cities of the State are Republicans, and this is a very serious matter. The Republican leaders are trying to hold back returns on the New York Assembly so that in case there is a very close vote a certificate may be given to the Republican candidate instead of the Democrats.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.

Blaine's organs generally claimed that nothing more would be heard about "McKinley prices" after the election. They asked their readers to believe that the high prices were "a scare" originating with Democrats to discredit "a wise Republican measure."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—

Reid accumulates that the Republican will soon be in a fierce conflict among themselves over the McKinley bill. The question is whether the bill is to be defended in the Senate and made a part of the party platform. McKinley's organs are passing the bill as a "scare" originating with Democrats to discredit "a wise Republican measure."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—

The Congressional interviewers are applying to the House to get the bill passed. Mr. Clay, Jr., and Mr. Chandler, at Philadelphia, concerning their candidacies for Governor, brought to the surface of public the fact that they were quite certain to be elected, and that they were quite certain to be elected, and that they were quite certain to be elected.

GOV. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, is lying seriously ill at Columbus, and his illness has been fatal.

He is threatened with typhoid pneumonia.

Election Paragraphs.

It looks like Tariff Reform has come to stay. The Chicago Herald puts it "Cleveland and Palmer" for 1892. The Republicans are scheming to elect Gen. Palmer for the Senate in Illinois.

WHO WON THE VICTORY?

The American claims that the great Democratic victory was won by the Republicans. That is true, but the Alliance comes in for a liberal share of the honors.

THE SENATE IN A QUARREL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Great interest has been shown here in the gains which the Democrats have made in the State Legislatures and in the prospect of getting the Republican Senate. It is believed that the Democrats will have a Republican majority of 101 to 99, and after 1892 this will be turned into a Democratic preponderance.
